THE NEW WORLD ORDER

Select list of references on regional and world federation; together with some special plans for world order after the war.

Compiled by Helen L. Scanlon, under the direction of M. Alice Matthews.

Contents

Bibliographies, p. 1.
Periodicals devoted to problems of a new world order, p. 2.
Books, pamphlets and magazine articles, p. 2-17.

Bibliographies

— Danube economic union (proposed) [Washington, 1936] 2 1. (Its Brief reference list no. 8, Aug. 11, 1936)

Bibliography and review of publications.

War documentation service. War check list, a working guide to the background and early months of the war (Sept. 1938-Jan. 31, 1940) Philadelphia, 1940. 78, 46 p. (War documentation service bulletin, March-April, 1940, no. 4, pt. 1-2)

Note: A dash before an item indicates the same author as that of the preceding item.
Periodicals

New York (8 West 40th St.) 1940.
Summarizes various unofficial suggestions from groups and individuals in other countries for the future organization of peace.

Radio addresses on various phases of the problem of world reorganization.

Federal union world, formerly Union now bulletin... v. 1 [no. 1- March, 1939.
Washington, D.C., Union press, 1939-
Organ of Federal union, inc., 10 East 40th St., New York.

The New commonwealth quarterly; a review devoted to research into problems of a new world order. v. 1- Apr/June 1935- London, New commonwealth institute of world affairs, 1935-

Pan Europa verlag, 1924-1938.
Official organ of the Pan European movement. Published also in French.
Continued by Europäische briefe, Nov. 1938-June, 1940. (In German and French)

Union, monthly forum of the New commonwealth institute of world affairs. v. 1-
Jan. 1940- [London, 1940-
The first two issues, Jan.-Feb. 1940, were entitled: Union, monthly digest.

Washington, D.C. (1243 - 24th St.) 1940-mimeo.

The world community, v. 1, no. 1- [1940?
Lyndhurst, N.J. (307 Tontine Ave.)

World federation - nov. v. 1, no. 1- Apr. 1939- Chicago, Campaign for world government (166 W. Jackson Blvd.) 1939-

Zeitschrift für geopolitik, verbunden mit der Zeitschrift weltpolitik und weltwirtschaft. Hrsg. von Dr. Karl Haushofer, v. 1, no. 1- 1924- Heidelberg, 1924-Contains authoritative articles on the Nazi philosophy and plans for a new order in Europe.

Books, Pamphlets and Magazine Articles

Adams, Mildred. Amid war, we plan for peace on earth; proposed plans for European

After the next armistice - what? [a radio discussion by ] Frank Knox, Walter Laves, William Spencer. University of Chicago round table, Nov. 12, 1939, no. 87. 29 p.

Alexander John G. After the war, peace! [we need a federation of the world] Congres-

A history of the project, and extracts from the speech of President Wilson at the Second Pan American scientific congress in Washington in 1916.

Angell, Sir Norman. Design for peace... 'Union now', a true federation of the democracies, the eventual solution. Living age (New York) Nov. 1339, v. 357: 252-254.

Outlines various plans for reorganization of the world.

Published by American fellowship forum, 11 West 42d St. New York City.

The Bruce committee was a Special committee of the League of nations on international cooperation in economic and social affairs.

A comparison of the potentialities of the two schemes for the future order.

"Selected bibliography": p. 325-326.

End of small nations; great empires or a federated Europe? American mercury (New York) July, 1940, v. 50: 276-284.

"A plan to insure eternal world peace... through effective international unity based upon equality and wisdom, under a permanent alliance of all nations."
Brunauer, Mrs. Esther (Caukin) Building the new world order, by E.C. Brunauer...with the aid of the members of the Committee on international relations of the American association of university women. Special student ed. New York, League of nations assoc. inc., 1939. 40 p.
Three main lines of discussion on a future peace (1) Union of democracies.
(2) Building on League foundations. (3) Peace system in the western hemisphere.

Butler, Nicholas Murray. Some problems of world federation. (In his The family of An address at the International club, Geneva, June 14, 1937.

Toward a federal world; an address delivered at the Parrish art museum, Southamp-
Published also in Vital speeches of the day (New York) Sept. 15, 1939, v. 5:
714-718.
Urges a world-wide application of the principles of the American constitution.

Caloyanni, Megalos A. The Balkan union, the Balkan conferences, and the Balkan pact.
v. 19: 89-101)

Cecil, Edgar A.R.G. Cecil, viscount. LNU principles are right; some such organisation as the League is absolutely necessary. Headway (London) Dec. 1939, v. 2, no. 3.

Contents.—Pt. 1. The meaning and history of federalism. Pt. 2. Federalism in Clark, Grenville. A memorandum with regard to a new effort to organize peace and containing a proposal for a "Federation of free peoples" in the form of a draft (with explanatory notes) of a constitution for the proposed federation... New York, 1939. 38 p.

statesman pamphlets) European federation the ultimate aim.

Commission to study the organization of peace. Preliminary report, November, 1940.
New York, 1940. 14 v.
The Commission is located at 8 West 40th St., New York, under the chairmanship Of James T. Shotwell. The report sets forth elementary principles essential to a lasting peace, and recommends world federation.

A study of the organization of peace [study course] Based upon the Preliminary report of the Commission... New York, 1940. 32 p.

Study outline on the organization of peace. New York, 1940. 31 p. (Its Study kit)

A reply to this article by S.C. Rendel entitled "International federation" was published in the Christian Science Monitor magazine, April 13, 1940, p. 15.

The defense of western civilization [address delivered at International house, New York, Nov. 3, 1940] 13 mimeo. 1.
A plan for an Atlantic union.

Federal union is the name, not merely of a proposal, but also of a society that has been founded to advocate this proposal.

Considers a working system of human society and comes to the conclusion that such a system must mean the organization of all human society in one commonwealth. Ralph W. Page, in his "Designs for a world order," calls this great work the foundation of all thought upon the design of a new order.

Associations of states: p. 156-167.

Reorganization of the League to provide for an international police force.

Dukles, John F. America's role in world affairs, an address... delivered... October 28, 1939. New York, Federal council of the churches of Christ in America, Dent. of international justice and good-will. [1939] 20 p.
America to lead the transition to a new order of less independent, semi-sovereign states bound together by a league or federal union. p. 8-20.
Also in Commission to study the organization of peace. Study kit.

(a) Unify Europe and the European dependencies on the pattern of the Napoléonic empire or, better, the Roman empire: one ruler, one law, one religion. (b) Unify Europe and dependencies on a federal plan on the pattern of the United States of America.

Includes in addition to the replies, an analysis of them by the French government.

Felix, archduke of Hapsburg. First steps toward peace in Europe... Philadelphia, University of Pennsylvania press, 1940. 15 p. (Howard Crawley memorial lectures. April 25, 1940)

Urges the formation of a series of confederations in the Danubian states, the Balkans, Poland, and the Scandinavian states.
Reviews and evaluates the various plans for world reorganization.

The future international organization. League - federation - or? Peace (London) April, 1940, n.s. v. 2, no. 11.

Recommends European federation.

German "neuordnung" in Europe; the origin of the "lebensraum" theory. Free Europe (London) Nov. 15, 1940, v. 3; 20.

The rebuilding of Europe will be impossible without the aid of Germany.

"After the war, what?" p. 204-[222] Suggests world federation.

Nazi design for living: p. 9-42.

Hitler's own plan for a Nazi-dominated world.

Urges a strong international army governed by a new league of nations.

Discusses the possibility of a formal union of the United States and the British Empire.

Review by A.B. Keith in New commonwealth quarterly, July, 1940.

Printed in The Reference shelf, v. 12, no. 6.

The Japanese "Monroe doctrine" or the East Asiatic "Monroe doctrine."

Advocates a federation of free states.

A constructive criticism of Jennings' "Federation for western Europe."

Knauth, Percival. Nazi plan ready for new Europe; Germany as the master would hold other states in a union. New York Times, June 23, 1940, IV: 5.

Discussed in Asia, March, 1940, v. 40: 126-128.

An economic united states of Europe.

A plan for "a super state which shall have power to act only as a world police to enforce permanent peace on earth."

Lawrence, David. Peace now! Why not skip the war and go directly to the main issues which are economic? - a formula is offered as a basis for an armistice. United States News (Washington) Oct. 23, 1939, v. 14.

Printed also in Monthly summary of the League of nations, Dec. 1939.
The so-called Bruce report, recommending organization by the League of an independent central committee for economic and social questions, to facilitate economic cooperation.

World settlement after the war (statements adopted on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, 1939) (In its Annual report for 1939. London, 1940. p. 29-31)

An amended and strengthened League of nations to be the basis of the new order.

Should English-speaking nations form a federal union?

Mackay, Ronald W. G. Federal Europe, the case for European federation... London, Michael Joseph, 1940. 322 p.

([American academy of political and social science] James-Patten-Rose pamphlet series no. 8)

Mann, Thomas. Two visions of peace; European confederation or supreme domination by a gigantic absolute state. Nation (New York) Feb. 10, 1940, v. 150: 174-177.

The author bases his article on views of various authors as expressed in the seven books which he reviews.

Discusses briefly several of the plans for a post-war settlement.

Munroe, David H. Hang together, the Union now primer. New York, Union press, 1940.
A brief summary of the Streit plan for an inter-democracy federal union.

Nash, Vernon. It must be done again, the case for a world federal union. New York, Federal union, inc., 1940. 45 p.

Proposals for world organization: p. 10-16.

Proposals for international economic cooperation, self-government for dependent territories, reduction of armament, a new international order, and rights of all peoples.

The basic principles of a new world order: p. 56-67.

National policy committee, Washington, D.C. Memorandum of the Special committee on steps toward a durable peace. Washington, 1940. 28 p. (Its Special committee memoranda, no. 9)

Discussion of the various proposals for peace after the war.

Speeches on the theme of "The new world order - its basic principles."

Opinions britanniques sur la guerre et la paix... Paris, Gallimard, 1940. 32 p. (Nouveaux cahiers, no. 54)

British plans for the world of tomorrow.

Advocates world federation.

At head of title: Centre européen de la Dotation Carnegie. Division des relations internationales et de l'éducation... A.P. Papanastassiou.

Reviews outstanding proposals for federations of nations.

Peace terms for Germany [what the German democrats propose in the event of Hitler's defeat] New republic (New York) April 1, 1940, v. 102: 430-433.

Outlines five points considered essential for the setting-up of a new world order.

A Polish-Czechoslovak declaration [on a closer political and economic association which would become the basis of a new order in Central Europe] Free Europe (London) Nov. 15, 1940, v. 3, no. 27, p. 3.

Quigley, Harold S. Free China. New York, Carnegie endowment for international peace, Division of intercourse and education [1940] 131-180 p. (International conciliation... April, 1940, no. 359)

Japanese plans for a new order in East Asia: p. 164-170.

Provides background information for the study of the new world order.

"The new order in East Asia": p. 257-277.

Partial contents: Pt. 2. Liquidation of the war; peace proposals of tomorrow's Germany. Pt. 3. The new order.

The essence of Union now. New York, Union press, [1940] 85 p. (Commission to study the organization of peace. Study kit)

For mutual advantage. Atlantic monthly (Boston) Nov. 1940, v. 166: 531-539.

Discusses questions regarding plan for a federation of democracies.

"The first chapter of the book, Union now, was written by the author as a pamphlet giving the essence of the volume. It is now published here separately as a pamphlet."

"This book was first made public in essence in three Cooper foundation lectures at Swarthmore college."

Union now or never; recent facts about the much discussed plan for world federation. Living age (New York) Dec. 1939, v. 357: 318-323.

Suggests a number of small federations of European nations as a step toward eventual world federation and recommends a revitalized League of nations, with power to enforce its regulations.

How to make the League of nations powerful.

Criticizes the Streit plan for "Union now," and suggests an American program.

German plans for the new order.

Vitoshky, Blagovest. Preliminary to federating the world. Los Angeles, Calif., United world pub. co. (815 S. Hill St.) 1939. 44 p.

Wells, Herbert G. The new world order; whether it is attainable, how it can be attained, and what sort of world a world at peace will have to be. London, Secker and Warburg, 1940. 190 p.

Ten points for world peace; a "declaration of the rights of man" should be the foundation of any post-war world. Current history (New York) March, 1940, v. 51, no. 7: 16-18.

What kind of peace? [London] 1940. 84 p. [National peace council. Pamphlets, 1940, no. 3]

The lessons of the League experiment... the possibilities of federation, etc. by Sir Norman Angell and Mrs. Barbara Tootton. p. 65-79.

"Examine[s] in detail how federalism has already worked out in the British Empire, the United States, and elsewhere - and from this deduces how it might be adopted on a world-wide scale."

